Gracious Lord, having children in our care or in our community is a blessing and a responsibility. They rely on all the adults around them to nurture, support and care for them so they can mature and grow. Forgive us for how we neglect them by not doing the most important thing we can do: pray for them regularly. Send your Holy Spirit into our conscience to remind us to lift up the children around us on a regular basis, and to be obedient to how you call us through prayer to care for them. We pray in Jesus' name. (Time of silent confession)

For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
